Store and Ewe Lambs - 1547

Demand for lambs from the numerous buyers present was terrific from start to finish on an entry consisting of mainly small lambs which would be £5 dearer than recent sales. Despite the fall in the slaughter trade since the Eid festival wether lambs still topped at a creditable £82.50 for Texel x from Mrs A Champion, Rochford with ewe lambs topping at £88 for Suffolk x Mules from K Bowen, Hopton Bank. The few stronger lambs sold from £70 to £82.50. Medium size stores sold from £62 to £68, and smaller runners and hill lambs from £44 to £61.50, with very poorest sorts from £36.50 to £40.

General prices for 1437 mixed/wether and tup lambs
