The trade on the yearling ewes was selective with the best ewes meeting a reasonable trade with generally all finding new homes, whilst some of the poorer secondary types were harder to clear.

1574 yearling and two year old ewes went through the ring with quality as always meeting the best trade with the better yearlings generally selling from £130 to £148 with second quality types from £110 to £125 and others from £80 to £104. Two year olds sold from £100 to £140. The overall average was £122.40 (£121.95 2017).
